

Memory in the iterative processes for nonlinear problems

Alicia Cordero¹, Neus Garrido², Juan Ramon Torregrosa¹, and Paula Triguero-Navarro¹

¹Universidad Politécnica de Valencia

²Universidad Internacional de La Rioja

October 25, 2021

Abstract

In this paper, we study different ways for introducing memory to a parametric family of optimal two-step iterative methods. We study the convergence and the stability, by means of real dynamics, of the methods obtained by introducing memory in order to compare them. We also perform several numerical experiments to see how the methods behave.

Hosted file

MMAS_CMMSE_2021_TRIGUERO.pdf available at <https://authorea.com/users/369649/articles/542963-memory-in-the-iterative-processes-for-nonlinear-problems>